DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

2. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 2000280756 A as set for in the Office action mailed 3/13/06.

3. Applicant's arguments filed 6/5/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that JP 2000280756 A does not teach 1) the removing part; 2) the thin part, cutting line, or cutting ditch embedded in the molded body; and 3) the groove at the non-front side surface, which is not seen from outside. Applicant is reminded that product by process claims are examined for its structure. See MPEP 2113. Here, the structure is defined as being a weather strip having an insert embedded therein and a groove on a non-front surface which can not be seen from outside. Applicant's arguments regarding the removing part and the thin part are misplaced because both parts are not structural parts of the claimed weather strip.

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. USPN 2197465 teaches an insert molding method.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1732

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
